TREASURY CIRCULAR No. 2 OF 1953

PENSION ALLOWANCES

1. Definitions. - For the purpose of this Circular:

"Pension" shall mean the actual monthly sum drawn as a pension, whether reduced or unreduced, or as an allowance, under the enactments referred to in the Schedule hereto, and, in the case of pensions arising before 1921, shall include the 40 per cent, increase granted under the authority of C.S.O. Circular No. 20 of 1921, and shall include any monthly payments made ex-gratia and for the like purposes as a pension or a compassionate, alimentary or special allowance arising from and calculated in respect of service with the Government of the Federation of Malaya. For the purposes of this definition service with the Government of the Federation of Malaya shall be deemed to include service before the establishment of the Federation of Malaya with the Government of any territory now included in the Federation of Malaya or in the State of Brunei before 1st May, 1948.

"Unrevised Pension" shall mean pension commencing on or before 1st August, 1947, or in the case of Asian non-gazetted ranks of the Police Force, uniformed and non-uniformed, a pension commencing on or before 1st January, 1947.

"Revised Pension" shall mean pension commencing after 1st August, 1947, or in the case of Asian non-gazetted ranks of commencing after 1st January, 1947.

"Increased Pension" shall mean the sum of Unrevised Pension and Adjustment Allowance payable in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Circular.

"Pensioner" shall mean a person in receipt of a pension as defined above.

"Dependants" shall mean the wife of a pensioner, and his dependent children under the age of 18 years, including step children and adopted children.

2. Adjustment Allowances. - (1) Increases by way of Adjustment Allowances will be paid, with effect from 1st January, 1952, on all Unrevised Pensions, irrespective of the place of residence of the pensioner, at the rates shown in Appendix "A" to this Circular, subject to the following limitations:

(i) Pensioners with Dependants -

Where Unrevised Pension exceeds $305 per mensem and is less than $320 per mensem, the total pension plus Adjustment Allowance shall be $320 per mensem. No Adjustment Allowance shall be paid on an Unrevised Pension of $320 per mensem and over. Any Adjustment Allowance granted under this sub-paragraph shall be revised in accordance with sub-paragraph (ii) if the pensioner ceases to have dependants.

(ii) Pensioners without Dependants -

Where Unrevised Pension exceeds $232 per mensem and is less than $250 per mensem, the total pension plus Adjustment Allowance shall be $250 per mensem. No Adjustment Allowance shall be paid on an nrevised Pension of $250 per mensem and over.

(2) Where pension contain a fraction of a dollar, Adjustment Allowance shall be paid at the rates applicable to the next highest complete dollar, e.g.:

A net pension of $44.00 receives $10.80 allowance.
A net pension of $44.80 receives $11.00 allowance.
A net pension of $45.00 receives $11.00 allowance.
A net pension of $45.00 receives $11.20 allowance.

3. Cost of Living Allowance. - (1) Cost of Living Allowances will be paid on all pensions with effect from 1st January, 1952, at the rates and subject to the limitations stated below, irrespective of the place of residence of the pensioner. Where Unrevised Pensions are increased by Adjustment Allowances payable under paragraph 2, Cost of Living Allowances under this paragraph will be paid on the Increased Pensions.

(2) Rates of Allowance -

(i) All Pensions

$10 plus 30 per cent. of pension on the first $50 of monthly pension;

20 per cent. of the second $50 of monthly pension;

(ii) Pensioners with Dependants only

20 per cent. of the next $100 of monthly pension;

Provided that -

(a) for pensioners with dependants, where pension exceeds $265 per mensem and is less than $320 per mensem, the total of pension and Cost of Living Allowance shall be $320 per mensem. No Cost of Living Allowance shall be paid on a pension of $320 per mensem and over;

(b) for pensioners without dependants, where pension exceeds $215 per mensem and is less than $250 per mensem, the total of pension and Cost of Living Allowance shall be $250 per mensem. No Cost of Living Allowance shall be paid on a pension of $250 per mensem and over;

(c) where any pensioner to whom Cost of Living Allowance is granted as a pensioner with dependants ceases to have dependants, Cost of Living Allowance shall thereupon be paid at the rates and subject to the limitations prescribed for pensioners without dependants.

(3) Where pensions of less than $320 per mensem contain a fraction of a dollar, Cost of Living Allowance on such pensions shall be paid at the rate applicable to the next highest complete dollar, e.g. :

A pension of $48.00 receives $24.40; Total $72.40.
A pension of $48.80 receives $24.70; Total $73.50.
A pension of $49.00 receives $24.70; Total $73.70.
A pension of $49.40 receives $25.40; Total $74.40.

(4) The amount of Cost of Living Allowance payable on pensions is shown in Column 2 of Appendix "B" to this Circular.

4. Complementary Allowances. - (1) All pensions drawn under the enactments referred to in the Schedule hereto and commencing on or before 1st January, 1952, including those increased as in paragraphs 2 and 3 above, will be increased, with effect from 1st January, 1952, by the award of a "Complementary Allowance" at the rates shown below, subject to marginal relief at the points of varying percentages. Where pensions are increased by Adjustment Allowances and Cost of Living Allowances as in paragraphs 2 and 3 above, the Complementary Allowance under this paragraph will be paid on the total of Increased Pension and Cost of Living Allowance.

(2) Rates of Complementary Allowance:

25 per cent. on pensions not exceeding $10 per mensem;
20 per cent. on pensions above $10 per mensem but not exceeding $20 per mensem;
18 per cent. on pensions above $20 per mensem but not exceeding $49 per mensem;
16 per cent. on pensions above $49 per mensem but not exceeding $99 per mensem;
15 per cent. on pensions above $99 per mensem but not exceeding $400 per mensem;
$60 per mensem on pensions above $400 per mensem.

(3) Where pensions of less than $400 per mensem contain a fraction of a dollar, Complementary allowance shall be paid at the rate applicable to the next highest complete dollar, e.g.;

A pension of $58.00 receives a Cost of Living Allowance of $26.60 plus a Complementary Allowance of $13.54;
Total $98.14.

A pension of $58.80 receives a Cost of Living Allowance of $26.80 plus a Complementary Allowance of $13.73;
Total $99.33.

A pension of $59.00 receives a Cost of Living Allowance of $26.80 plus a Complementary Allowance of $13.73;
Total $99.53.

A pension of $59.40 receives a Cost of Living Allowance of $27.00 plus a Complementary Allowance of $13.92;
Total $100.32.

The amount of Complementary allowance payable on pensions, based on the above rates and including marginal relief wherever applicable, is shown in Column 4 of Appendix "3" to this Circular.

5. Means Test. - No Means Test will be applied in the award of the Allowances set out in paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 above.

6. Pensions Commencing After 1st January, 1952. - No Complementary Allowance will be paid on pensions commencing after 1st January, 1952. Such pensions will attract Cost of Living Allowance at the rates set out in paragraph 3 and in Appendix "B" to this Circular.

7. Apportioned Pensions. - Where a pensioner is in receipt of proportionate pension from two or more administrations, any Adjustment Allowance, Cost of Living Allowance or Complementary Allowance payable under this Circular shall be determined on the aggregate of pension portions and pensioners shall be paid such proportion of these Allowances as the Federation portion of the pension bears to the whole pension.

8. Multiple Pensions. - (1) Where two or more pensions are payable to a pensioner under the enactments referred to in the Schedule hereto, such pensions shall be aggregate for the purpose of any award of Adjustment Allowance, Cost of Living Allowance or Complementary Allowance under the terms of this Circular.

(2) Where a widow is paid a pension and, in addition pensions on behalf of her minor children, Adjustment Allowance, Cost of Living Allowance and Complementary Allowance will be calculated on the aggregate total and at the rates applicable to pensioners with dependants.

(3) Where pensions are payable to orphans of common parentage, Adjustment Allowance, Cost of Living Allowance and Complementary Allowance will be calculated on the aggregate total and at the rates applicable to pensioners without dependants.

9. Pensioners resident in Singapore. - Pensioners resident in Singapore on the date of the issue of this Circular and in receipt of "Singapore Allowance" shall continue to receive the Allowance at the rates paid to pensioners of the Government of Singapore provided that the Singapore Allowance will not be payable to pensioners who take up residence in Singapore after the issue of this Circular.

10. Pensioners resident in Ceylon. - (1) This paragraph shall apply to pensioners resident in Ceylon.

(2) Pensioners who, being resident in Ceylon on 1st June 1953, are in receipt of Ceylon Cost of Living Allowance (formerly styled War Allowance) and who would, under the terms of this Circular, receive less by way of allowances on their pensions than they are receiving at that date shall, so long as they continue to be resident in Ceylon, in lieu of the allowances payable under this Circular continue to receive the Ceylon Cost of Living Allowance at the rates in force on 31st May, 1953, and appropriate to their pensions subject to the following qualifications:

(i) At no time shall Ceylon Cost of Living Allowance be payable at a higher rate than the rate in force on 31st May, 1953.

(ii) If at any time or times the rate at which Ceylon Cost of Living Allowance is payable falls below the rate in force on 31st May, 1953, the Allowance will thereupon be payable at such reduced rate.

(iii) If after such reduction as is referred to in the last provision, the rate at which Ceylon Cost of Living Allowance is payable at the reduced rate in force immediately before such increase.

(iv) If at any time the rate at which Ceylon Cost of Living Allowance is payable is reduced to such a rate that it does not exceed the Allowances which are applicable to pensioners resident in the Federation, pensioners to whom this sub-paragraph applies shall thereupon cease to be eligible for Ceylon Cost of Living Allowance and will thenceforward receive allowances at the rates applicable to pensioners resident in the Federation.

(v) Allowances payable to a pensioner resident in Ceylon whose effective date of retirement was on or after 1st January, 1952, but before 1st June, 1953, shall be at the rate which would have been applicable to such pensioner if he had been resident in the Federation provided that where Ceylon Cost of Living Allowance has been paid to such pensioner prior to 1st June, 1953, and the amount thereof has exceeded the amount which would have payable to such pensioner if he had been resident in the Federation, no refund shall be called for in respect of the amount so overpaid.

(vi) Allowances payable to pensioners resident in Ceylon whose effective date of retirement is on or after 1st June, 1953, shall be at the rates applicable to pensioners resident in the Federation.

11. Certificate to be Rendered by Pensioner. - A pensioner will be required to make such declarations as to his eligibility for pension and allowances as the Accountant-General may from time to time decide.

12. Method of Payments. - The Accountant-General will issue any further necessary instructions regarding the method of payment of arrears of Adjustment Allowance, Cost of Living Allowance and Complementary Allowance, and will arrange for the repayment of the interim payments made during 1952 and 1953 under the provisions of Treasury Circulars Nos. 22 and 35 of 1952 and Treasury Circular letter No. (8) in Try. (Est.) 1270 dated 13th February, 1953.

13. Non-Application of Circular. - This Circular shall not apply to

(1) Pensions under the provisions of the Widows' and Orphans' Pension Enactment, allowances on which will continue to be governed by existing regulations;

(2) Pensions under the terms of the Royal Warrant, allowances on which will continue to be governed by existing regulations;

(3) Pensions under the provisions of the Personal Injuries (Civilian) Scheme, 1941, allowances on which will continue to be governed by existing regulations;

(4) Pensions under the provisions of the Malay Regiment and Federation Regiment (Retired Pay, Pensions, Gratuities and other Grants) Regulations, 1952, provided that where allowances were paid on pensions payable under Malay Regiment Pension Regulations in force prior to the date of coming into force of the Malay Regiment and Federation Regiment (Retired Pay, Pensions, Gratuities and other Grants) Regulations, 1952, they shall continue at existing rates;

(5) Political pensions and Compassionate Allowances awarded by a State Government;

(6) Pensions under the provisions of the Emergency (Auxiliary Police) (Personal Injuries) Regulations, 1948.

(7) Compensation under the provisions of the Emergency (Civilian Injuries Compensation) Regulations, 1949.

14. Replacement of other Schemes. - Subject to paragraphs 9, 10 and 13 above, this Scheme replaces, with effect from 1st January, 1952, any other Scheme under which increases are payable on pensions, to which this Circular applies, whether initiated by the Federal Government or accepted by other territories, e.g., increases awarded under the United Kingdom Pension (Increase) Acts 1944 and 1947 and increases awarded to pensioners resident in Ceylon, India and Pakistan by way of War Allowance, Cost of Living Allowance, etc. Payments made under these latter Schemes with effect from 1st January, 1950, will be deducted in calculating the arrears due on such pensions.

15. Cancellation of Circular. - Federal Secretariat Circular No. 33 of 1950 dated 15th December, 1950, is hereby canceled.

By Command,

J.E. PEPPER,

Secretary to Treasury.
